About SFMG

Why call on SFMG?

1. For expert, hands-on assistance in resolving organizational and planning problems
2. To create an action plan for organizational change and growth
3. To gain an outside, independent, professional assessment of productivity opportunities with specific management advice
4. To develop winning business plans with increased profitability
5. To resolve management or personnel problems
6. To open doors to profitability & growth

SFMG organized our internal operations effectively and found savings of over $150,000 per year. Our profits have been up ever since.

-- Harold Silen, President, BASS

About James Lansing

James Lansing is the principal of SFMG, and a Certified Professional Consultant (CPC) with an MBA from Tulane University Graduate Business School. He was featured in "INC. Magazine" for his contribution to small business growth in San Francisco, in the "Tulane Business News," and was included in "Who's Who in U.S. Executives."

As an experienced management consultant, Mr. Lansing works closely with CEOs and their senior management teams to address their most critical concerns. SFMG also partners with banks, accounting firms, and other professionals as necessary to facilitate solutions.

Previously, Mr. Lansing was a management consultant for Coopers & Lybrand and George S. May Company, after training as an auditor at Bank of America.
